1. On 1 March 1955, 6 x 37-mm AA guns with 6 trucks as prime movers, another 13 trucks and only limited activity of soldiers were observed in the area of Camp No 1 in Kaisersteinbruch (P 48/X 67). The camp was guarded by a sentry who wore red-bordered black epaulets. Motor vehicles observed at the camp included trucks and jeep and ten all with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets; with drivers wearing black-bordered red epaulets. Five 122-mm field howitzers and 14 trucks were observed on the hill east of Camp No 1. About 30 soldiers swept snow between these weapons and trucks. Two majors wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia walked from Camp No 1 to the only two heated billets in the area of Camp No 2. The camp was guarded by a sentry who wore black-bordered red epaulets. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2. On 28 February 1955, 2 majors wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia and a major wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia entered the barracks installation southeast of Goetzendorf (P 49/X 57). Sixty-seven trucks, most of them jacked up, and 3 van-like motor vehicles were parked in closed arrangement in the area of the installation where another 4 trucks were parked individually. Motor vehicles observed leaving or entering the installation included truck with a driver wearing black-bordered red epaulets; and trucks and jeeps and van-like motor vehicle all with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. An imprint similar to that caused by a full-track vehicle led from the Mannersdorf (P 48/X 66) railroad station to the installation. 25X1 25X1 25X1
3. On 27 February 1955, a flatcar which was loaded with an JSU-122 SP gun with muzzle brake, and a boxcar which was occupied by an undetermined number of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were attached to a freight train at the Klosterneuburg (O 49/S 30) railroad station. Imprints similar to those caused by a track-laying vehicle led from the direction of the former Pioniermuseum (Engineer Museum) to the railroad station. 25X1
1. Comment. The present reports from Kaisersteinbruch and Goetzendorf agree with previous information. 25X1
2. Comment. The 8th Gds Engr Bn and the 46th Gds Mech Regt of the 13th Gds Mech Div are stationed at Klosterneuburg. It is noted that a JSU-122 SP gun is mentioned in the present report. As early as October 1954, some SU-100 SP guns have been observed on the occasion of the return of the regiment from the troop training grounds. SP guns of the above-mentioned models possibly belong to the 46th Gds Mech Regt as they have also been the case within mechanized regiments in 25X1
